Nicat Asgarov

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

Principles of Financial Leadership

In this specialization learners developed mastery of essential concepts in financial accounting, corporate finance, and capital markets. They gained the ability to interpret financial statements, apply valuation methods, and evaluate investment opportunities using tools such as discounted cash flow and internal rate of return. Through real-world case studies and practical exercises, they built the skills to make informed, strategic financial decisions that support sustainable business performance.
